

REPENT AUSTRALIA

“If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.”

PREPARING FOR ANTICHRIST

What is common to all these events that are going on today in Australia? Disempowering unions and abolishing wage fixation. Privatising numerous public utilities such as electricity and water supplies, Telstra, Qantas, CSIRO, the Transcontinental Railway, the Quarantine Service, airports, BankWest and the Commonwealth Bank. Floating the Australian dollar. Citrus growers bulldozing orange trees while we import orange juice from Brazil. Paying pork producers to stop producing pigs so we can import pork from Denmark and Canada. Deregulating the dairy industry and driving thousands of dairy farmers off their farms. Allowing 85% of Australia to be subject to native title claims. Making the possession of a weapon for self-defence illegal. The progressive surrender of our national sovereignty through multilateral treaties with the United Nations. The advent of “hate crimes” for alleged racial or religious vilification. The constant bombardment of sport by the media for the Olympic Games, para-Olympics, Winter Olympics, Gay Olympics, Goodwill Games, one-day cricket, Super League rugby etc etc.

Transnational Corporations

The answer is found in one word: GLOBALISATION. In other words, the ownership of Australia’s and other nations’ economic assets and resources is being transferred into the hands of transnational corporations (TNCs) and consortiums of global investors. And, in order to protect the interests of these people, control is being transferred from national governments to such global bodies as the World Trade Organisation (WTO), the International Monetary Fund (IMF), the World Bank, the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) and others. Moreover, to conceal the fact that globalisation is a deliberate program it is portrayed as happening spontaneously and inevitable. But there is nothing spontaneous about it. Globalisation is official government policy practically worldwide, the result of plans devised long ago for a world socialist government.

Cooperation of the Media

Of course, these devious plans could not succeed without the cooperation of the media with its ownership concentrated in relatively few hands all committed to the globalist cause. It is the media which keeps the general public distracted from the truth of what is really happening. Thus the media plays its part in eliminating the spirit of nationalism which is seen as a threat to world peace. This is achieved by promoting republicanism in preference to the British Crown which is a hindrance to a world government; getting rid of the Australian flag by claiming the Union Jack on its corner symbolises subservience to Britain, re-writing our national history to belittle the contribution of our pioneers and nation builders, even to re-interpreting settlement as “invasion”; and using sporting contests to diffuse the nationalistic spirit common to all nations. Under the Whitlam government, our legal system was cut off from its British roots when appeals to the Privy Council were abolished. Now the High Court of Australia with its one-world leanings (seen in the Mabo judgment, brought down to satisfy the desires of the “international community”) is the final court of appeal. This body, however, will no doubt become subservient to the International Court of Justice, which is steadily expanding its jurisdiction. Moreover, the public’s faith in our judicial system is being eroded by the farcical sentences handed down to habitual criminals; and the parole system, which practically ensures that offenders are soon back on the streets to continue their life of crime.

New World Order

Other measures under way toward a new world order include a population control program under the auspices of UNESCO; the re-distribution of wealth from the developed to the under-developed countries; control of environmental matters through the UN Environment Program (UNEP); disarming civilian populations; WHO to oversee health worldwide; and the establishment of a one-world religion composed of faiths ranging from Christian, Catholic, Hindu, Buddhist, Moslem and others under the umbrella of the World Council of Churches, replacing evangelism with social and economic doctrine in fitting with its humanistic viewpoint. One Big Happy Global Village

On the face of it, it may sound like a good idea to have one body controlling the world's affairs. No wars as a UN police force maintains law and order; no more famines as UN bodies distribute food from wealthy nations to the impoverished ones; no more ecological vandalism by desperate countries destroying rainforests or polluting waterways or the atmosphere. Why, we will be just one big happy global village! Or will we? Unfortunately, the old adage still holds true: power corrupts. And world control! The mind boggles. Students of the Bible know, moreover, that the stage is being set for someone who will manifest a particularly nasty form of power. This person, the antichrist, shall oppose God and persecute the followers of Christ. He will have authority over every nation and cause everyone "both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hand or on their forehead, so that no one can buy or sell unless he has the mark of the beast (antichrist) or the number of his name." This program is even now well in hand, as cards replace cash and soon laser imprints supersede cards, being steal-proof, lose-proof and damage-proof.

Deeply in Bondage

As it stands now Australia is more deeply in financial bondage than most countries in the world. Our national foreign debt is over $430 billion and rising steadily as imports continue to exceed exports every quarter to the tune of billions. Our total interest bill has risen to over $20 billion annually while our government tinkers marginally with their policy instruments as the situation continues to deteriorate. Steadily, inexorably it would seem, we are being drawn into the maw of the globalists and the coming new world order. But it is not a time to despair for, while the globalists believe they have the upper hand and will soon have the nations in their grasp, the Spirit of God is an unseen observer and He who will have the last laugh. In fact His Word declares: "Why do the nations rage and the people plot a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together against the Lord and His Anointed (but) He who sits in the heavens shall laugh; the Lord shall hold them in derision." (Psalm 2:1, 2, 4)

A Rod of Iron

Though the antichrist will cast his evil sway over nations this is no time for despondency but to resist these evil machinations and look up, "for your redemption draws nigh". That is, when these things are happening it means that the Lord's return is near. The Scriptures assure us that when Jesus returns He will strike the nations opposed to Him and rule over them with a rod of iron and His servants shall reign with Him as kings and priests unto God. The powers of evil and darkness will be banished and righteousness and justice prevail on the earth for a thousand years. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Lord God Almighty, as Creator of the universe, we acknowledge that Your laws are the root from which all our basic freedoms derive. Merciful Father, have mercy on this nation for violating these spiritual laws given to all mankind to have a personal relationship with You. Loving Father, as covenant children washed in the blood of Jesus, we come now before Your throne of grace to worship You in Spirit and in truth. Omniscient Father, thank You for warning us of the perilous times ahead as we head for the so called 'global village' headed by antichrist. Sovereign Lord, we also thank You that Your promise of eternal hope is found in Jesus Christ's finished work on the cross in conquering Satan. We look to Christ for the Spirit of wisdom and power, as dressed in the full armour of God, we spiritually walk in His glorious Light. For blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, the people He has chosen for His inheritance. Blessed Holy Spirit, help us to display our Lord's grace in becoming the salt of the earth and light of the world to fulfill God's sovereign purpose for Christianity to become a transforming force against all forms of deception and lawlessness. Holy Father, in Jesus' name, we take authority through Your omnipresent Spirit to pull down all strongholds of deception, economic exploitation and crushing collective sin and place them under the obedience of Christ. Holy Father, convict the lost of this land to genuinely repent and receive the gift of salvation as they sincerely pray: Heavenly Father, I surrender to You in the name of Jesus Whom You sent to die for my sins on the cross. Forgive and cleanse me with Your blood from all unrighteousness. I believe in my heart and confess with my mouth that You raised Jesus from the dead and that He lives for evermore. Fill me with Your Holy Spirit. I pray, to enable me to live a victorious Christian life. I now acknowledge Jesus Christ as my Lord and Saviour, God Almighty as my Father and the Holy Spirit as my Comforter. I am born again, into the Family of Faith. Thank You, Lord Jesus. Amen and glory to God.
