

REPENT AUSTRALIA

“If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.”

FABIANISM AND FEMINISM

As mentioned before (Repent Australia, November 2007), our country is being subverted from within by an octopus-like force that has been striving to strangle the goodness and high moral standards out of our Christian culture. This month we consider two more of these spiritually malevolent influences that have been at work in our midst for decades, so much so that we have lost sight of their deadly impact on our nation and its way of life. The first of these is secular humanism spearheaded by its flagship the Fabian/Marxist movement with its emblem of a wolf in sheep's clothing, presenting itself as harmless as a lamb but underneath is a ravenous wolf. From its inception in 1884, the Fabians---named after the Roman general Quintus Fabius---has sought to undermine and destroy our invaluable Christian way of life. Working on the principle of gradualism rather than outright revolution, they have infiltrated many organisations and infused their ideas into others. In particular, large numbers of academics, already strongly anti-Christian and enthusiastic supporters of Darwin's theory of evolution, have been attracted to this anti-God movement. Consequently these academics, especially those in the humanities departments of our universities, have been in an ideal position to infect their students with the ungodly Fabian/Marxist doctrine. Moreover, Fabian literature has sought to attack the traditional family by promoting feminist writers and left-wing journalists, subtly and constantly attacking Christian values. Operating on similar lines to a secret society, shunning publicity, they nevertheless have quietly promoted their fellow members to positions of power and influence to further their ungodly schemes for this nation.

Fabianism and the Justice System

Left-wing criminologists, lawyers and sociologists, aided and abetted by Fabian trained journalists, have convinced our politicians and many of the unsuspecting public that the thrust of the justice system should be changed from one of punishment and protection of the public to the rehabilitation of the criminal. In their twisted logic they have convinced themselves and people under their godless influence that more lenient sentences, or in some cases no sentence at all, would achieve this objective. How many times have we seen judges lean over backwards and stretch their so-called logic to justify grossly lenient sentences even in the face of a great public outcry? Then, take education. Teachers are no longer an authority to be respected, but are just one of the gang, one of the “guys”. Since the federal government signed the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child children have become aware that they have almost total freedom to do whatever they like, unrestricted by any form of corporal punishment, thus further increasing pressures on family life. Today we have children starting school who are totally uncontrollable and, being diagnosed with ADHD, are treated with drugs. We also have large numbers of young people rampaging in the streets at night stealing cars and gate-crashing parties, having learned their so-called “rights” but nothing of responsibilities. However, you cannot fool all the people all the time and their evil intent is occasionally revealed by someone or other. When this happens, however, they simply smear and ridicule their opponents, a type of intimidation constantly adopted by Marxist-oriented journalists. And what is the outcome of the changes wrought on us by this terribly misguided belief system that has helped white-ant our traditional heritage? Is Australia a better, safer place to live? Are children growing up in stable, happy family relationships? The answer is obvious. The concentrated attack on our Christian faith and culture has been nothing short of disastrous. Never before have we experienced such problems of escalating crime, teenage suicide, alcohol and drug abuse, unpremeditated violence and road rage, marriage breakdown, unsafe streets and trains, mindless graffiti, rebellion and hopelessness.

Feminism's Relentless Drive

Hand-in-glove with secular humanistic Fabian/Marxism is Feminism, which is yet another arm of the enemy within. What began with Emmeline Pankhurst and her suffragettes fighting for voting rights for women evolved into a relentless drive against male domination that was both anti-family and anti-Christian. Having recognised in Marxism a tool to overturn traditional society that exploited women, the feminists developed into a very potent force that has played no small part in the shaping of Western society. The feminists of today are committed to Marxist ideology that includes the destruction of the traditional family, strongly advocating "pro-choice" abortion, easy, no-fault divorce, a plethora of child care centres, sexual promiscuity, and socialism with all its handouts to single mothers. Vigorously opposing true femininity and the uniqueness of womanhood, they seek to make men more like women. In fact, much left-wing ideology is captive to radical feminists who vigorously denounce the institution of marriage as patriarchal and oppressive to women, and who devalue motherhood as a sort of drudgery for which no intelligent, self-respecting woman should sacrifice a paid career.

Positions of Influence

Undoubtedly the feminists have gained positions of influence so that we are constantly bombarded with their philosophy. The media is notably pro-feminist. In fact, the Western media is a major driving force behind their program. The armed forces have been compelled to replace men with women, even in battle situations. To what end? Defeminising the women, lowering morale, sexual misconduct and unwanted pregnancies. The police now employ many women, so there are more marriage break-ups and weaker patrols in the streets. Society is in a war of the sexes and sadly the most affected of all are children, especially boys. From birth to teens the modern child's authority figure is female. With the advent of easy divorce, social welfare incentives to single mothers, and the feminisation of education with the majority of teachers female, some 1.5 million children in Australia will grow up without the love, authority and discipline of a father, the God-ordained head of the family, or any other significant male influence in their lives. Moreover, the feminists have destroyed the innocence of romantic love with its inherent qualities of care and respect only fully realised in marriage and replaced them with wanton, aggressive sexual misconduct of the "jump-into-bed-first-date" kind of relationships. If we are to save our Christian way of life we need to heed the wise words of Scripture: "Marriage is honourable among all, and the bed undefiled; but fornicators and adulterers God will judge."

Crisis of Modernity

It is high time we came to realise that the octopus-like enemy within our nation is causing much harm to the quality of life we once enjoyed when Christian culture prevailed. In fact, the absence of Christian values in our society is a major part of the crisis of modernity, exacerbated to no small degree by the malevolent presence of secular humanistic Fabianism and Feminism. The former has quietly eroded the foundations of Christian society aided and abetted by political correctness employing such terms as racist, bigot and fascist to silence their opponents. The latter movement has set itself to make this and other nations gender-free, anti-God wildernesses of feminism. As Australia has moved away from its Christian roots we see more corruption, family breakdown, a travesty of justice in the courts, the acceptance of sexual deviancy, promiscuity and other forms of immorality, and the higher virtues of decency, courtesy, honour and integrity as casualties in this war of ideologies, a war between right and wrong, good and evil, God and Satan. They must not succeed. JESUS CHRIST was once Lord over this, the Great Southland of the Holy Spirit; the Bible was the handbook for our laws and values. What is more, Christ shall again be honoured and obeyed throughout this nation! Won't He?

PRAYER

Lord God Almighty, Creator of the heavens and the earth, help all in Australia to realise that we will be judged by Your Living Word---THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. Grant, O Lord, that we may acknowledge that He---and He alone---conquered sin and death on the Cross of Calvary 2000 years ago. Thank You, Father, for sending Him to reveal the Way, the Truth and Eternal Life. Your Word says: Woe to those who call evil good, but that is exactly what our nation has done. We have lost our spiritual equilibrium and reversed our Christian values. Forgive us, O Lord. We confess we have ridiculed the truth of Your Word and called it pluralism. We have worshipped other gods and called it multiculturalism. We have endorsed perversion and called it alternative lifestyle. We have rewarded laziness and called it welfare. We have killed our unborn and called it choice. We have failed to discipline our children in the false belief of building their self-esteem. We have abused power and called it politics. We have polluted the air with profanity and pornography and called it freedom of expression. Search us, O God and know our hearts today. Cleanse us with Jesus' blood from our sin and set this country free to acknowledge that JESUS CHRIST IS LORD and coming King, to the glory of God. Amen.

R.A: Led by our Lord Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit to glorify the Fatherhood of God with the Brotherhood of Man; in love and in faithfulness to bring glory and honour to His holy name.
